Letter No. 247/GAD dated the 25/26th NOV 1947 from the Comptroller to Govt requesting to intimate whether, in view of the Govt Notfn No. 2089/CB H8-47-2 dated 20.10.47 designating Mr. H. L. Lingaraj urs as Assistant Commissioner on duty in the palace', the new post is a permanent addition to the cadre of Assistant Commissioners and whether Mr. Lingaraj urs is to be treated as having been confirmed in his appointment as Asst Comr before completion of his probationery period.

1. The request of the Comptroller is submitted for orders with the connected references.

2. Mr. H. L. Lingaraj urs was appointed as a probationary Assistant Commissioner in August 1946. While he was under training, Mr. Lingaraj urs was appointed as Assistant to the Secretary-in-waiting to H.H. the Maharaja in August 1947. He is continuing there and his designation has been recently changed as 'Assistant Commissioner on duty in the palace' (vide D.O. flagged 'O')

3. Financial Secy may be consulted.

3/12.

4 Mr. H. L. Lingaraj urs entered service as a Probationary Asst comr on 9-8-46. During the probationary period of two years he has to pass the

the following Departmental service examinations —

1. Revenue Higher
2. Criminal Higher
3. Accounts Lower

and an examination in riding. He will also have to undergo training in certain items of work. A Probationary Asst. Comr. who qualifies himself fully by passing the prescribed examinations and who completes the course of practical training with credit, will be confirmed as an Asst. Comr. with effect from the date of expiry of the term of probation calculated from the date of his appointment. Mr. Lingaraj was joined Service as a Prob. Asst. Comr. on 9-8-46 and the period of two years' probation will be over on 9-8-48. His confirmation as Asst. Comr. can, therefore, take effect from 9-8-48 provided he becomes qualified by passing the prescribed examinations required to and goes through the course of practical training with credit.

5 As Mr Lingaraj was has been with-drawn from training and posted for duty in the Palace, he cannot therefore complete training in all items. As his transfer appears to have been made in the public interest, he has perhaps to be granted exemption from complete undergoing full training. Besides his confirmation can take effect only at the expiry of the probationary period. It is also not known if he has passed the required Departmental Examinations. In view of this, he cannot perhaps be confirmed as an Asst Comr now.

6 It is also submitted in this connection that Mr Lingaraj MS rank among the Prob. Asst Comrs is Seventh, and in case he is now confirmed as Asst Comr, he will go above his Seniors.

A | 7 The confirmation of Mr Lingaraj MS is, therefore, for orders.

8 The appointments of Asst Secy on the Personal Staff of H. H. the Maharaja is now held by an Asst Comr. This appointment is not included in the cadre of Asst Comrs and the officer holding it, is regarded as on other duty in the Palace. It is, therefore, for consideration, if Mr Lingaraj MS may not be treated as a Prob. Asst Comr on other duty in the Palace.
